Term Two Week 2 W/E Friday 6th May 2022

The term has commenced with a definite change in weather, with colder mornings and dampness underfoot. The preschool program has reverted to indoor activities at the beginning of the day before heading outside at approximately 11am to align with the weather at this time of the year. Children have adapted well to the change, and we will occasionally mix things up as needed.

The Mother's Day Devonshire Morning-tea is Friday 6th May 2022 at 10am. There will be activities set up and a chance to meet other mums and children.

Please remember there is a cap of two visitors per family to adhere to social distancing and minimise overcrowding. We would really love to see you and share our beautiful preschool with everyone..

Art for Youth will be holding their Art Exhibition and Competition from 20th -22nd May 2022. Students are invited to enter the Junior Art Exhibition and Competition. Entry Forms are available from the DCS front office. Get out those paints and pencils!

On Friday 20th May Preschool children will be attending art and craft activities at DCS to experience a broad range of artistic mediums. This is always fun and they get to take the finished products home!

Speech Pathologist visit—Monday 16th May. We will be contacting families about potential speech and language screening throughout this term.

Another sad goodbye for next month to Tina Dalman who has been collecting and delivering children to and from schools, and preschool for the past 38 years. Tina is hanging up her driving hat on the 30th June and begin a long awaited holiday, regardless of term times. (Schools holidays won't matter anymore)!

We thank you for your devotion, consistency, safety and care of all the children you have transported—what an effort! It won't be quite the same without the daily banter and count down to the end of each term. We wish you well and appreciate everything you have done for the "Doo" children.

SCHOLASTIC BOOK CLUB CATALOGUE attached—Orders Due: Friday 27th May
